Community Reviews. Agent to the Stars is actually John Scalzi's first book, self published before Old Man's War as a "practice" to see if he could write and then again later after he was established. The practice was well played, he can write, and this is a damn fine example of how well. Funny, often very funny,...

Very funny look at first contact with an engaging alien species. Smelly but likeable they decide a Hollywood agent is needed to introduce them to the planet. Full of witty one liners and dialogue garnered from their view of earth via our radio and TV output. I thoroughly enjoyed this book and would recommend it as a light read.
