Even though this base is gone, you can still get your hands on many of these photos. We devoted 19 pages of our hardcover coffee table book, Ghosts of North Dakota Vol. 3, to Fortuna AFS. We hoofed it up the hill in wet grass, looking for a gate that would allow us access to the former radar facilities at the top of the hill.

Some of the memorable things about The Munsters is the creepy looking Gothic mansion they lived in and the "Munster Koach" which they drove around in which looked sort of like a hot rod hearse. The show which was hosted by CBS competed directly with The Adams Family on ABC. Both shows were in black and white. When the Batman series which was shot in color aired in 1966, it spelled the end for ...
